

“Take the Quiz” Exercise

Lesson Objectives:

- Be able to identify your top anthropology skills.
- Be able to communicate the value of three of these anthropology skills in the workplace and offer examples demonstrating your proficiency in them.

Resources Needed:

- Copies of the one-page tool “How Proficient Are You? Take the Quiz.”
- Paper and pencil.

Process:

- The activity can be completed in about 30 minutes.
- Work on your own.

Activity:

1. Review the “Recognized Anthropology Skills” category of the “Take the Quiz” tool and circle the skills you consider to be your strengths.
2. In the table below, respond to the following:
  - List your top three anthropology skills from the “Take The Quiz” tool you could see yourself using in the workplace.
  - Provide an example from your courses, an internship, a job, or some life experience where you built proficiency in each skill.
  - Explain briefly why each of these skills might be useful to an employer.

Your Top Anthropology Skills	Example of Your Proficiency in these Anthropology Skills	Why these Anthropology Skills Would Be Useful to an Employer
1.
2.
3.

Outcomes:

1. List of your current anthropological skills.
2. Examples of your proficiency in these skills.
3. Statements about the value of these skills to an employer.

